Target Audience:	MTSS Teams
Description:	This session focuses on strengthening MTSS through intentional implementation and purposeful de-implementation. Participants will examine current practices, systems, and initiatives to determine what is working, what may no longer be serving students, and where thoughtful change is needed. Attendees are encouraged to bring their MTSS guidebooks, building and district systems, and professional knowledge to collaboratively align effective practices, identify areas for refinement, and develop clear messaging for communicating decisions back to building teams, district leadership, and stakeholders.
Materials Required:	What to Bring: MTSS Guidebook(s) (building and/or district) Current MTSS systems and frameworks (Tier I, II, III structures) Data sources used for decision-making (academic, behavior, attendance, screening, progress monitoring) Lists of current initiatives, programs, or interventions in place Building and district goals (TIP, CIP, or strategic plan connections) Knowledge of what is working—and what feels misaligned or redundant Questions or challenges related to implementation, sustainability, or staff clarity A willingness to reflect, refine, and communicate change clearly
